Václav Havel Scholarship Application Form

The Václav Havel Scholarship Programme was established by Charles University in 2014. It is intended for foreign students and citizens whose access to study has been complicated or even made impossible due to repression by totalitarian, authoritarian, and oppressive regimes anywhere in the world.

The main goal of the programme is to provide study opportunities to those who were unlawfully prevented from studying and who are exposed to long-standing political oppression.

The admission requirements of Charles University include successfully passing an entrance examination (organized by the respective faculties).
