

Quality management for water analytical laboratories

Dr. Wolf von Tümpling

Helmholtz – Centre for Environmental Research - UFZ (Germany)

- 5-day course from 29.10.-02.11.2012
- The aim of course: quality of analytical results, data consistency, statistics, accuracy, precision, GLP (good laboratory practice)
- 2 lectures every morning
- 4h of laboratory practices in afternoons (in Laboratory of Environmental Chemistry)
- The course will be focused on water chemistry (but not exclusively)
- Recommended for students from ÚŽP and Faculty of chemistry

The course will be held in English at the Institute for Environmental Studies UK (Benátská 2). Passed students get 3 credits. For the participation, please register the course MO550C06E „Hot topic of environmental sciences “ at SIS until 14th September (or after this date per email – see below).

Maximal number of participants: 10 students.

More information: katerina.kolarikova@natur.cuni.cz