

NEW WAVE

International Student and
Early Career Conference

31st May – 1st June, 2018

10 YEARS

KEYNOTE LECTURE

Learning from women entrepreneurs: reflections on early careers in academia

Natasha Webster

*Postdoctoral Researcher, Department of Human Geography, Stockholm
University, Stockholm, Sweden*

Natasha is interested in gender, entrepreneurship, migration, work life, workplace practices and regional development. Natasha's research focuses on feminist economic geography and explores female entrepreneurship in relation to migration and integration. She has completed studies in Thailand, China, Sweden and Canada.

Natasha also chairs the Forum for Feminist Research in Stockholm and she is a co-guest editor for a Special Issue, "Early-career women in Geography. Practical pathways to advancement in the neoliberal university", to be published in Geografiska Annaler B 2018/2019.

The NEW WAVE conference is organized under the auspices of the mayor of Prague 2 Mgr. Jana Černochová and the Rector of the Charles University prof. MUDr.Tomáš Zima, DrSc., MBA.

Mayor's Office
City of Prague

Czech Geographical Society

FACULTY OF SCIENCE
Charles University

MĚSTSKÁ ČÁST PRAHA 2
The Borough of Prague 2